IMPORTANT INFORMATION: From the Ohio Department of Health - Vital Statistics Website:

When a legal name change has been granted to a person whose birth occurred in Ohio our office will accept a certified copy of the court ordered legal name change to update the birth record. The court order must have been granted by a US court. Some courts may send the certified* copy directly to our office, while some may require the petitioner to do so.

Once the legal name change is accepted by our office, a footnote will appear on the birth record indicating that a legal name change is on file. In addition, the new name as exactly listed on the court order is the name that will be reflected in the updated birth record.
